

Branston & Mere Parish Council.

Data Protection Policy

Branston & Mere Parish Council needs to collect and use certain types of information about the Data Subjects who come into contact with it in order to carry on our work. This personal information is collected and dealt with appropriately– whether on paper, in a computer, or recorded on other material - and there are safeguards to ensure this under the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR).

The list below explains the definition of the technical terms we have used and is intended to aid understanding of this policy.

Data Controller – The person who (either alone or with others) decides what personal information Branston & Mere Parish Council will hold and how it will be held or used.

General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR) – The UK legislation that provides a framework for responsible behaviour by those using personal information.

Data Protection Officer – The person(s) responsible for ensuring that it follows its data protection policy and complies with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR).

Data Subject/Service User – The individual whose personal information is being held or processed by Branston & Mere Parish Council (for example: a client, an employee, a supporter)

‘Explicit’ consent – is a freely given, specific and informed agreement by a Data Subject (see definition) to the processing* of personal information* about her/him. Explicit consent is needed for processing sensitive* data
* See definition

Notification – Notifying the Information Commissioner about the data processing activities of Branston & Mere Parish Council as certain activities may be exempt from notification.

Information Commissioner – The UK Information Commissioner responsible for implementing and overseeing the GDPR.

Processing – means collecting, amending, handling, storing or disclosing personal information.

Personal Information – Information about living individuals that enables them to be identified – e.g. name and address. It does not apply to information about organisations, companies and agencies but applies to named persons, such as individual volunteers or employees within Branston & Mere Parish Council.

Sensitive data – means data about:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious or similar beliefs
- Trade union membership
- Physical or mental health
- Sexual life
- Criminal record
- Criminal proceedings.

Data Controller

Branston & Mere Parish Council is the Data Controller under the regulations, which means that it determines what purposes personal information held will be used for. It is also responsible for notifying the Information Commissioner of the data it holds or is likely to hold, and the general purposes that this data will be used for.

Disclosure

Branston & Mere Parish Council may share data with other agencies such as the local authority, funding bodies and other voluntary agencies.

The Data Subject will be made aware in most circumstances how and with whom their information will be shared. There are circumstances where the law allows Branston & Mere Parish Council to disclose data (including sensitive data) without the data subject's consent.

These are:

1. Carrying out a legal duty or as authorised by the Secretary of State
2. Protecting vital interests of a Data Subject or other person
3. The Data Subject has already made the information public
4. Conducting any legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice or defending any legal rights
5. Monitoring for equal opportunities purposes – i.e. race, disability or religion
6. Providing a confidential service where the Data Subject's consent cannot be obtained or where it is reasonable to proceed without consent: e.g. where we would wish to avoid forcing stressed or ill Data Subjects to provide consent signatures.

Branston & Mere Parish Council regards the lawful and correct treatment of personal information as very important to successful working, and to maintaining the confidence of those with whom we deal and will adhere to the Principles of Data Protection, as detailed in the GDPR.

Specifically, the Principles require that personal information:

1. Shall be processed fairly, lawfully and in a transparent manner in relation to the individual/data subject
2. Shall be collated for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
3. Shall be adequate, relevant and limited to the purpose(s) for which they are processed
4. Shall be accurate and up to date and inaccurate data shall be erased or rectified without delay
5. Shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it was processed
6. Shall be kept secure using appropriate technical and organisational measures to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal information,

Branston & Mere Parish Council will, through appropriate management, strict application of criteria and controls:

- Observe fully conditions regarding the fair collection and use of information,
- Meet its legal obligations to specify the purposes for which information is used,

- Collect and process appropriate information, and only to the extent that it is needed to fulfil its operational needs or to comply with any legal requirements,
- Ensure the quality of information used,
- Ensure that the rights of people about whom information is held, can be fully exercised under the regulations. These include:
  - The right to be informed that processing is being undertaken,
  - The right of access to one's personal information
  - The right to prevent processing in certain circumstances and
  - The right to correct, rectify, block or erase information which is regarded as wrong information),
- Take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to safeguard personal information,
- Ensure that personal information is not transferred abroad without suitable safeguards,
- Treat people justly and fairly whatever their age, religion, disability, gender, sexual orientation or ethnicity when dealing with requests for information,
- Set out clear procedures for responding to requests for information.

Data collection

Informed consent is when

- A Data Subject clearly understands why their information is needed, who it will be shared with, the possible consequences of them agreeing or refusing the proposed use of the data
- and then gives their consent.

Branston & Mere Parish Council will ensure that data is collected within the boundaries defined in this policy. This applies to data that is collected in person or by completing a form.

When collecting data, Branston & Mere Parish Council will ensure that the Data Subject:

- Clearly understands why the information is needed
- Understands what it will be used for and what the consequences are should the Data Subject decide not to give consent to processing
- As far as reasonably possible grants explicit consent, either written or verbal, for data to be processed
- Is, as far as reasonably practicable, competent enough to give consent and has given so freely without any duress
- Has received sufficient information on why their data is needed and how it will be used.

Data Storage

Information and records relating to service users will be stored securely and will only be accessible to authorised staff and volunteers.

Information will be stored for only as long as it is needed or required statute and will be disposed of appropriately.

It is Branston & Mere Parish Council's responsibility to ensure all personal and company data is non-recoverable from any computer system previously used within the organisation, which has been passed on/sold to a third party.

Data access and accuracy

All Data Subjects have the right to access the information Branston & Mere Parish Council holds about them. Branston & Mere Parish Council will also take reasonable steps ensure that this information is kept up to date by asking data subjects whether there have been any changes.

In addition, Branston & Mere Parish Council will ensure that:

- It has a Data Protection Officer with specific responsibility for ensuring compliance with Data Protection,
- Everyone processing personal information understands that they are contractually responsible for following good data protection practice,
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately trained to do so,
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately supervised,
- Anybody wanting to make enquiries about handling personal information knows what to do,
- It deals promptly and courteously with any enquiries about handling personal information,
- It describes clearly how it handles personal information,
- It will regularly review and audit the ways it hold, manage and use personal information
- It regularly assesses and evaluates its methods and performance in relation to handling personal information
- All staff are aware that a breach of the rules and procedures identified in this policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken against them

This policy will be updated as necessary to reflect best practice in data management, security and control and to ensure compliance with any changes or amendments made to the GDPR.
